

The Charles County Sheriff's Office has been investigating Keith Krikstan, a former Charles County Public Schools (CCPS) substitute teacher, since Jan. 13, 2018. The new charges brought June 1, 2018, against Krikstan stem from offenses he allegedly committed in 2007, 10 years prior to his employment with the school system. Krikstan was hired as a substitute in September 2017. Background checks conducted by the State of Maryland and the FBI provided no reports of criminal history. We continue to work with the Charles County Sheriff's Office to ensure our schools are a safe place for teaching and learning.
